For the Intelligence

Dr. Isaac Blankson engaged in a discussion with his students.

Lee Fink, the Lincoln Middle School Geography Bee Sponsor, said that he thought that this year's competition might not be quite as successful as last year's, but with hard work and dedication, they achieved the state's top ten.

The 10 top scorers from each school are invited to state, and the top 100 scorers from those go to state.

Stuart said that this year's competition was not as competitive as last year's, but the quality of the questions was higher, and the top scorers were awarded in the top 10 for the state for the qualifying round.

Also, the top 10 scorers in the state competition were narrowed down to the top 10 for the qualifying round of questions.

One of the top scorers in the state competition was a girl who had qualified for state again this year, and she had improved her score.
