MoBOT plans summer LEGO program

The Missouri Botanical Garden is pleased to announce it will host LEGO BrickTastic this summer, May 24 — July 20. This special LEGO exhibit features larger than life sculptures built by LEGO certified Master Builder, Keoni Kean. The exhibit is open to the public May 24 and runs through July 20.

For the information:

The Missouri Botanical Garden is located at 5000 Lindell Boulevard in St. Louis, Missouri. The Garden-admission is $4 for adults, $3 for senior citizens and students, $2 for young adults and children, and free for members and children under three years of age.

LCCC

Continued from Page 1

In the second semester, T2 students more fully experience college campus inclusion by being on campus every day. They continue to work alongside their own teachers at LCCC and a counselor at the Center for Talented Youth.

After high school graduation, T2 students will be attending from this district. It is a plan that has been in development for several months. This is in response to the needs of parents and students for the past several months regarding the needs of their children.

The Missouri Botanical Garden is located at 5000 Lindell Boulevard in St. Louis, Missouri. The Garden-admission is $4 for adults, $3 for senior citizens and students, $2 for young adults and children, and free for members and children under three years of age.

Continued from Page 1

In the second semester, T2 students more fully experience college campus inclusion by being on campus every day. They continue to work alongside their own teachers at LCCC and a counselor at the Center for Talented Youth.

After high school graduation, T2 students will be attending from this district. It is a plan that has been in development for several months. This is in response to the needs of parents and students for the past several months regarding the needs of their children.

The Missouri Botanical Garden is located at 5000 Lindell Boulevard in St. Louis, Missouri. The Garden-admission is $4 for adults, $3 for senior citizens and students, $2 for young adults and children, and free for members and children under three years of age.

Continued from Page 1

In the second semester, T2 students more fully experience college campus inclusion by being on campus every day. They continue to work alongside their own teachers at LCCC and a counselor at the Center for Talented Youth.

After high school graduation, T2 students will be attending from this district. It is a plan that has been in development for several months. This is in response to the needs of parents and students for the past several months regarding the needs of their children.

The Missouri Botanical Garden is located at 5000 Lindell Boulevard in St. Louis, Missouri. The Garden-admission is $4 for adults, $3 for senior citizens and students, $2 for young adults and children, and free for members and children under three years of age.

Continued from Page 1

In the second semester, T2 students more fully experience college campus inclusion by being on campus every day. They continue to work alongside their own teachers at LCCC and a counselor at the Center for Talented Youth.

After high school graduation, T2 students will be attending from this district. It is a plan that has been in development for several months. This is in response to the needs of parents and students for the past several months regarding the needs of their children.

The Missouri Botanical Garden is located at 5000 Lindell Boulevard in St. Louis, Missouri. The Garden-admission is $4 for adults, $3 for senior citizens and students, $2 for young adults and children, and free for members and children under three years of age.

Continued from Page 1

In the second semester, T2 students more fully experience college campus inclusion by being on campus every day. They continue to work alongside their own teachers at LCCC and a counselor at the Center for Talented Youth.

After high school graduation, T2 students will be attending from this district. It is a plan that has been in development for several months. This is in response to the needs of parents and students for the past several months regarding the needs of their children.

The Missouri Botanical Garden is located at 5000 Lindell Boulevard in St. Louis, Missouri. The Garden-admission is $4 for adults, $3 for senior citizens and students, $2 for young adults and children, and free for members and children under three years of age.