Dr. Aldemaro Romero Jr. Letters from Academia

Since the early 1800s, colleges and universities have played a prominent role in preparing students for successful careers. The well-rounded education provided by these institutions helps students develop the necessary skills and knowledge to succeed in their chosen fields.

SIUE School of Business students honored

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY Edwardsville Business students were honored for their academic achievements at the 11th Annual Scholarship Ball of Business, Research, and Awards Program on Tuesday, April 21 at the Morris University Center.

Scholarships totaling $90,000 were awarded to 77 students pursuing degrees in accounting, business, computer management, marketing, psychology, economics, information systems, management and finance, and management and market-